1. INTRODUCTION

The Board of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians has established the People Culture and Remuneration Committee (the “Committee”). The Governance of College Bodies By-law sets out the general provisions for governance of Board Committees. Both the Governance of College Bodies By-law and this By-law govern the Committee.

2. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Committee is to assist the Board to discharge its responsibilities to College Members by ensuring that the College:

- a) has appropriate policies and procedures in place to comply with work, health, and safety (WHS) and employment laws and regulations;
- b) has appropriate strategies in place to attract, retain and develop key management personnel including the Chief Executive Officer and other executives;
- c) has appropriate strategies in place to develop the capability and culture of the organisation to deliver the objectives of the College.

3. FUNCTIONS

The functions of the People Culture and Remuneration Committee include:

- a) ensuring that policies, procedures, and practices are in place to discharge the College’s obligations with WHS and employment laws and regulations;
- b) recommending to the Board processes for the recruitment (and termination, as necessary) of the roles of the Chief Executive Officer and the Company Secretary, noting that employment decisions in relation to both these roles always remains with the Board;
- c) reviewing, and recommending to the Board for approval at the beginning of each calendar year, the performance objectives and key performance indicators (“KPIs”) of the CEO;
- d) reviewing and recommending to the Board for approval following the end of each calendar year the assessment of the actual performance of the CEO against those objectives and KPIs;
- e) reviewing and recommending to the Board for approval following the end of each calendar year any remuneration adjustments for the CEO including the payment of any performance-based bonuses;
- f) approving, on the recommendation of the CEO, the commencing remuneration package of any new SLT member;
- g) approving, on the recommendation of the CEO and following the end of each calendar year, any remuneration adjustments for members of the College’s Senior Leadership Team (“SLT”) including payment of any performance-based bonuses;

- h) ensuring that strategies for succession planning for the CEO and the SLT are in place;
- i) ensuring the College has in place appropriate strategies to assess and develop the capability and culture of the organisation to deliver the objectives of the College, and to monitor the effectiveness of those strategies; and
- j) recommending to the Board, the Board evaluation process to be conducted each year and the recommended provider of that service where an external evaluator is proposed.
