The Gender Equity in Medicine Working Group (GEMWG) was established by the RACP Board of Directors in February 2020. The purpose of the GEMWG is to: • Develop a definition of what 'gender equity' means for our College which will be proposed to the Fellowship Committee and Board for approval;

- Understand the gender equity/inequity experiences of Fellows and trainees across different workplace settings;
- Liaise with other similar organisations that have established or are establishing similar programs of work;
- Examine what systems, policies, strategies and culture ought to be established within our College to better support gender equity in medicine;
- Identify the implications of making a commitment to gender equity across College processes, leadership and culture;
- Interact with the Advancing Women in Healthcare Leadership research program being led by Professor Helena Teede if and when it eventuates in the term of this working group;
- Identify systemic barriers to gender equity for Fellows and trainees and solutions to removing them;
- Identify the role and actions to be taken by the College and make recommendations to the Fellowship Committee and the Board.
