

2025 Examples of Acceptable CPD Evidence

The table below provides examples of acceptable evidence for CPD activities claimed in the RACP CPD program 'MyCPD'. This is not an exhaustive list and other types of documentation may be accepted.

Doctors have an ethical, professional, and legal duty to respect patient rights to privacy and confidentiality. Please ensure that all patient information is de-identified in documentation provided.

As a general rule, acceptable documents should be from another party and contain the:

- name of the participant
- date
- activity title
- organisation's name and/or signing peer's name

Personal calendar and diary entries will not be accepted except to verify journal readings.

CPD activities completed through the RACP can be internally verified by the CPD Team e.g. SPDP, supervising, examining, committee involvement, accreditation, College journals.

Please don't hesitate to contact us at MyCPD@racp.edu.au if you have any questions.
