

FULL CONFERENCE VIRTUAL REGISTRATION

Please find the program for delegates virtually attending the Career Triage: from registrar to consultant conference.

Virtual delegates will have access to all plenary sessions across both days as noted in the program below.

Virtual attendees will also be able to interact with the speakers live and ask questions during the Q&As.

Please be advised, the program is subject to change at any time.

DAY 1: SATURDAY, 7 NOVEMBER 2026

TIME	SESSION
9:00am	Welcome - Welcome to Country and Kara Kia
9:10am	Opening moderated conversation: Leadership through uncertainty: balancing humanity and duty* The Rt. Hon. Dame Jacinda Ardern and Associate Professor Kudzai Kanhutu
10:00am	Having difficult conversations: top tips for the physician* Dr Ranjana Srivastava and Dr Gauri Gogna
10:45am	Break

11:05am	Médecins Sans Frontières - pathways to practice* MSF physician - Dr Justine Cain
12:05pm	Lunch
1:00pm	Neurodivergence and a public approach to supporting the disability* Professor Ian Anderson and Associate Professor Caroline Dowling
2:00pm	Designing a portfolio career: clinician, educator, researcher, leader* Dr Ella Smalley, Dr Lloyd Nash, Dr Sarah Arachchi
3:00pm	Break
3:20pm	Conduits of care: advocacy from the bedside to the boardroom* Dr Ruth Mitchell, paediatric and adult neurosurgeon Followed by a fireside conversation with RACP Independent Interim Board Chair, Adjunct Professor Susan Pascoe AM
4:05pm	Closing remarks
4.15pm	Day one concludes

* Plenary sessions available as part of virtual registration

DAY 2: SUNDAY, 8 NOVEMBER 2026

TIME	SESSION
9:00am	Welcome - Welcome to Country and Kara Kia*
9:10am	President address*
9:20am	Keynote session: The power of no: one man, one idea, a national movement* Dr Daniel Nour
10.05am	Participants moving to concurrent sessions
10:15am	Culture first, then care: re-imagining clinical encounters through Indigenous lenses - Part 1 Maori and Pacific^ Dr Matt Wheeler, Dr Joshua Agnew
11:15am	Break
11:35am	Culture first, then care: re-imagining clinical encounters through Indigenous lenses - Part 2 Indigenous Australians^ Professor Jacquelyne Hughes
12:35pm	Lunch
1:25pm	Rapid-Fire Clinical Updates - AMD* Cardiology, Endocrinology, Neurology, Clinical Pharm, Infectious Diseases, General and Acute

TIME	SESSION
	Professor James McMahon, Associate Professor Andrew Black, Associate Professor Roland McCallum and Associate Professor David Sullivan, Professor Vincent Thijs
3:15pm	Break
3:35pm	Panel: "The training contract: are we still setting up the physician workforce for success?" * Dr Matt Wheeler, Dr Simone Arden Holmes, Associate Professor Nicole Hancock, Associate Professor Kudzai Kanhutu
4:10pm	Closing remarks*
4:20pm	Day two concludes

* Plenary sessions available as part of virtual registration

^CPD hours available

^Earning Continuing Professional Development (CPD) with RACP MyCPD

Fellows participating virtually can earn the following CPD in the highlighted plenary sessions:

- Two hours (one hour each session) Cultural Safety CPD^
-

Disclaimer

Please note the program may be subject to change at any time.

Keynote speakers and program presenters at this event do not indicate, imply, or represent any political affiliation, endorsement, or position of the College. The views and opinions expressed by speakers are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of the College. The College's decision to host or invite a speaker should not be interpreted as support for any political party, movement, ideology, or political position. The College remains politically neutral and does not align itself with, endorse, or take sides in political matters.