RACP LIFT 26

Learning ▸ Innovation ▸ Forward Thinking

FULL CONFERENCE VIRTUAL REGISTRATION

Please find the program for delegates virtually attending the Career Triage: from registrar to consultant conference.

Virtual delegates will have access to all plenary sessions across both days as noted in the program below.

Virtual attendees will also be able to interact with the speakers live and ask questions during the Q&As.

Please be advised, the program is subject to change at any time.

DAY 1: SATURDAY, 7 NOVEMBER 2026

TIME	SESSION
9:00am	Welcome: Welcome to Country and Karakia Steffen Faurby, Professor Ian Anderson, Dr Matt Wheeler
9:20am	Opening moderated conversation: Leadership through uncertainty: balancing humanity and duty The Rt. Hon. Dame Jacinda Ardern and Associate Professor Kudzai Kanhutu
10:10am	Having difficult conversations: top tips for the physician Dr Ranjana Srivastava and Dr Gauri Gogna
11:00am	Morning break

11:25am	Designing a portfolio career: clinician, educator, researcher, leader Dr Ella Smalley, Dr Lloyd Nash, Dr Sarah Arachchi
12:20pm	Lunch
1:15pm	Médecins Sans Frontières - pathways to practice MSF physician - Dr Justine Cain; Chair – Dr Julian Kelly
2:10pm	Neurodivergence and a public approach to supporting the disability*^ Professor Ian Anderson, Associate Professor Caroline Dowling, Professor Brett McDermott
3:15pm	Break
3:30pm	Conduits of care: advocacy from the bedside to the boardroom Dr Ruth Mitchell, paediatric and adult neurosurgeon Followed by a fireside conversation with RACP Independent Interim Board Chair, Adjunct Professor Susan Pascoe AM
4:15pm	Closing remarks Steffen Faurby
4.25pm	Day one concludes

* Plenary sessions available as part of virtual registration

^CPD hours available

DAY 2: SUNDAY, 8 NOVEMBER 2026

TIME	SESSION
9:00am	Welcome: Welcome and Karakia Steffen Faurby and Dr Matt Wheeler
9:10am	Keynote session: The power of no: one man, one idea, a national movement Dr Daniel Nour
10:00am	What happened when I stopped worrying and started a family: making sense of work-life balance in the modern world Dr Ranjana Srivastava, Dr Lee-Anne Gray and Dr Matt Wheeler
11:00am	Morning break
11:25am	Rapid-Fire Clinical Updates - AMD Cardiology, Endocrinology, Neurology, Clinical Pharm, Infectious Diseases, General and Acute Professor James McMahon, Associate Professor Andrew Black, Associate Professor Roland McCallum and Associate Professor David Sullivan, Professor Vincent Thijs
1:20pm	Lunch

TIME	SESSION
2:15pm	Culture first, then care: re-imagining clinical encounters through Indigenous lenses - Part 2 Maori and Pacific*^ Dr Matt Wheeler, Dr Joshua Agnew
3:20pm	Panel: "The training contract: are we still setting up the physician workforce for success?"  Dr Matt Wheeler, Dr Simone Ardern Holmes, Associate Professor Nicole Hancock, Associate Professor Kudzai Kanhutu
4:15pm	Day two concludes

* Plenary sessions available as part of virtual registration
^CPD hours available

---

^Earning Continuing Professional Development (CPD) with RACP MyCPD

Fellows participating virtually can earn the following CPD in the highlighted plenary sessions:

- Two hours (one hour each session) Cultural Safety CPD^

Disclaimer

Please note the program may be subject to change at any time.

Keynote speakers and program presenters at this event do not indicate, imply, or represent any political affiliation, endorsement, or position of the College. The views and opinions expressed by speakers are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of the College. The College's decision to host or invite a speaker should not be interpreted as support for any political party, movement, ideology, or political position. The College remains politically neutral and does not align itself with, endorse, or take sides in political matters.