Expressions of Interest – Journal of Paediatrics and Child Health – Specialty Editors in various areas

The Journal of Paediatrics and Child Health (JPCH) is inviting expressions of interest for specialty editors in the following areas:

- Dermatology
- Emergency Medicine
- General Paediatrics
- Haematology/Medical Oncology
- Immunology
- Infectious Diseases
- Intensive Care Medicine
- Pharmacology
- Respiratory Medicine

JPCH is the official peer-reviewed journal of the College's Paediatrics & Child Health Division. It is published completely online by Wiley. The journal covers a wide range of clinical and non-clinical areas of relevance to paediatricians, including internal medicine, surgery and psychiatry.

There are 43 specialty editors who report to the Editor-in-Chief, Professor Ju Lee Oei, on the Editorial Board.

Scope of practice

Suitable applicants should have a strong publication record in the specialty they're applying for.

Editors' duties include:

- Timely assessment and selection of appropriate reviewers for submissions
- Arbitration of suitability for publication of submissions
- Skill in the art of writing, editing and critical assessment
- Soliciting high profile reviews and timely submissions
- Advising on editorial policy considerations
- Familiarisation with electronic online peer review programs (JPCH currently uses Research Exchange Review)
- Attending the annual JPCH Editorial Board meeting.

To apply, and for more information

Please send your CV and a brief cover email explaining your interest to jpch@racp.edu.au
