

Injury Management and Mental Health for First Responders: A Northern Territory Perspective

John Deane, Operations Manager – Northern Territory, Gallagher Bassett
Julian Robertson, Acting Principal Psychologist, NT Police, Fire and Emergency Services

- Highest Number of Active Claims (150)
- 2nd Highest Number of New Claims (71 in 2018)
- Highest Cost per Claim (60% higher than scheme)

- Partnership Approach
- Specific Targeted Training
- Embedded Staff within Agency
- Mobile Case Management Model
- Geographic Coverage
 - Alice Springs
 - Katherine
 - Darwin
- Early RTW Outcomes
 - >5% Improvement Across Scheme
- Improved Stay At Work
 - NTPFES RTW Pool Decreased 40%

Northern Territory Police, Fire and Emergency Services

Support & Wellbeing

Julian Robinson

Acting Principal Psychologist

Northern Territory
Police Force

Northern Territory
Fire and Rescue
Service

Northern Territory
Emergency Service

PFES

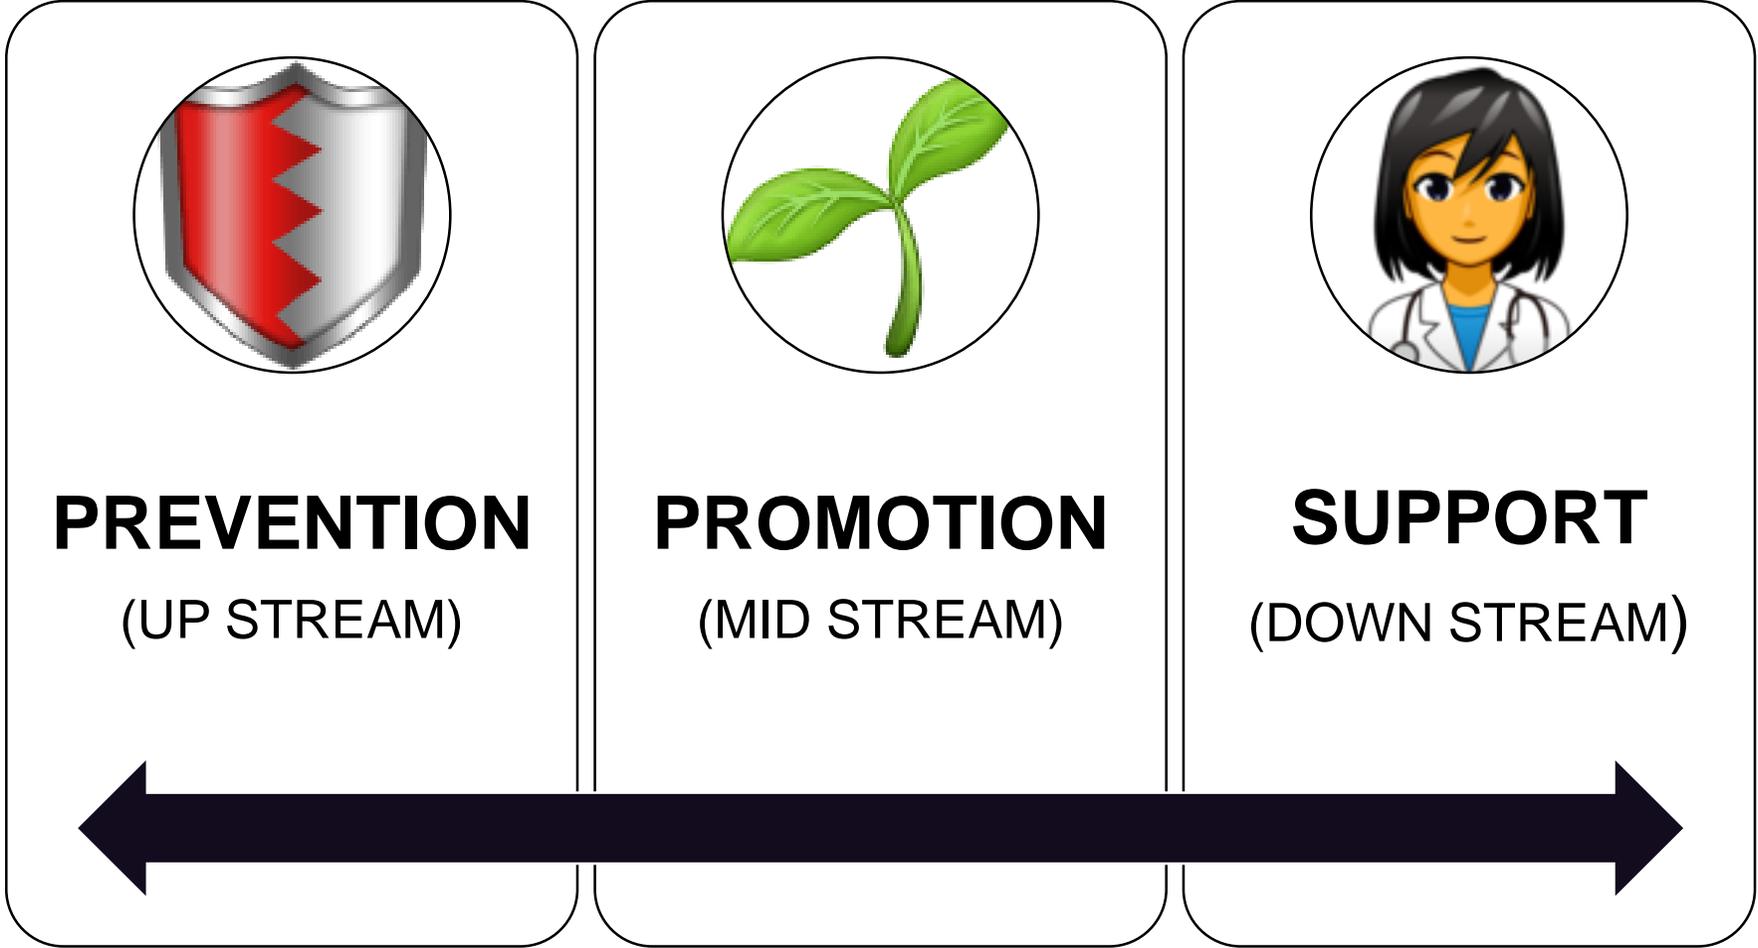

Heads ûp

www.headsup.org.au

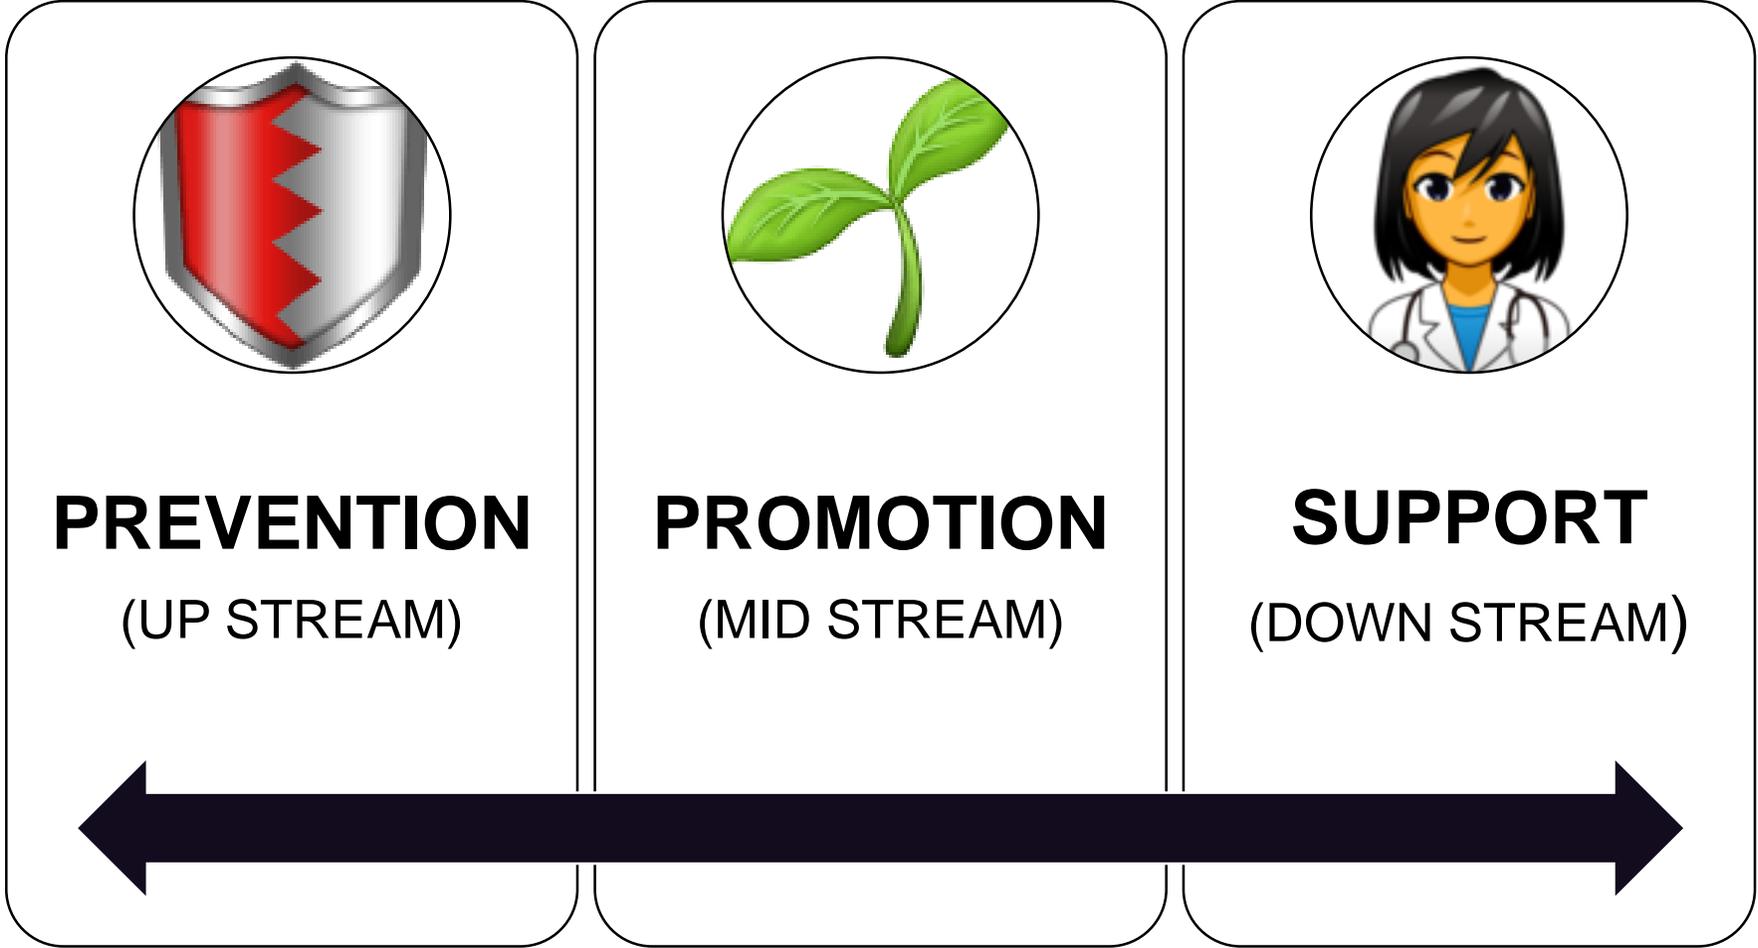

Thrive at work

www.thriveatwork.org.au

Julian Robinson | Acting Principal Psychologist - Assistant Director
NT Police, Fire and Emergency Services
p... 08 8995 5422 | e... julian.robinson@pfes.nt.gov.au